SCORING PROGRAM GUIDELINES

Scoring Process Defined

All submitted proposals for the funding cycles are required to be complete by addressing all required scoring criteria.

The applicant's membership will be verified by the LTBB Enrollment department. Prior to the Review board scoring of applications, all applicants must have favorable verifications of all components listed or they will be denied. Applications are assigned a number. Applicants can have their name removed from the application prior to being reviewed by written request by applicant, so then only proposal information will be revealed to the review board.

Within two weeks after the deadline, the Tribal Administrators Assistant will present these proposals to the review board for scoring. There are four reviewers each reviewer assigns up to 100 points possible for each proposal as listed by scoring criteria section and provides comments. To be considered for funding, the proposal must receive a minimum of 60 points, or it is automatically denied. The reviewers score each application independently or as a group and submit their written determinations in a one-day session.

Scoring Criteria:
